

LOCAL BREVITIES.

Mr. John Shillito has returned from his trip to Europe.

A single scull race between Jos. E. Franklin and William Steinheim occurs at 4:30 this afternoon, under the auspices of the Licking Amateur Scullers.

The Board of Health transacted no business of importance yesterday afternoon. Meetings of the Board will be held hereafter on the second and fourth Tuesdays of each month.

The autumnal festival of the Sabbath-school of the Second Presbyterian Church was held last evening, and was attended by a large number, who enjoyed the exercises immensely.

An untenanted frame house, belonging to Peter Miller, on Fossilick street, was burned down about 8:30 o'clock last evening. The loss is about $200, fully insured. It is supposed that the fire is the work of an incendiary.

The "Ticket-of-Leave Man" will be given on Tuesday and Wednesday evenings of next week, under the auspices of the Robinson Light Infantry, at Robinson's Opera-house, the proceeds to be used in the purchase of guns and uniforms for the company.

Rev. A. B. Moore made an address at the Y. M. C. A. rooms last night to a very large audience. This evening the subject will be "Cries from the Cross." These meetings are doing a good work, and have been nobly encouraged. Over fifty conversions have been made within the last three weeks in the Association rooms.

The Weekly Star.

The WEEKLY STAR, now ready, contains interesting editorials on the current topics of the day, together with a large amount of interesting, newsy editorial paragraphs; Book and Magazine Reviews, the latest news by telegraph, a full summary of the important news of the past week, Humorous Gossip, Foreign news, Exposition items, interesting local news of general interest, political matters, Proceedings of the National Agricultural Congress, interesting correspondence from different parts of the country, Religious intelligence, Poetry, Parables, and several short stories, interesting Historical and Biographical sketches, Scientific, Literary and Agricultural reading, together with a full and complete Home and Foreign Market and Financial Report, &c., &c. Price 4c in wrappers, ready for mailing.

MARRIED.

COOK—LONG—On Tuesday evening, at ten o'clock, September 28th, 1875, by Elder William P. Stratton, at his residence, No. 324 Richmond street, Mr. John W. Cook to Miss Clara G. Long, all of Cincinnati.

MENULTY—WILSON—On Tuesday evening, September 28th, 1875, at 8 o'clock, at the home of the bride, No. 73 Bond street, Cincinnati, by Elder William P. Stratton, Mr. W. W. McNulty and Miss Emma H. Wilson, all of Cincinnati. Ed. Stratton: Among the guests present at the above named wedding was Mrs. Bloomer, past 85 years of age, residence No. 171 Lin street. She walked near two miles to witness the marriage of one of her great-granddaughters. She said that after she had supper she was going to walk home. She did not want to ride. She could say truly, "Arise, my daughter and go to thy daughter for thy daughter's daughter has a fine son five weeks old." There were five generations of her present at the nuptials.

DIED.

BOYSE—On Monday evening, at 7 o'clock, Southwell Boyse, aged 72 years, 11 months and 14 days.

Funeral service at Asbury Chapel, Webster street, between Main and Sycamore, on Thursday afternoon, at 2 o'clock. Friends of the family are invited to be present. sep-29-2*
